STANDARD PROCEDURAL ORDER FOR SERVICE IN SMALL CLAIMS CASES

The Court is issuing an Order directing the Clerk of Courts office to abide by and follow the following service requirements for Small Claims cases in Sawyer County.

All evictions, money judgments and replevins shall require personal service on the Respondent/Defendant. With the exception of money Judgments in which the Respondent/Defendant is a resident of Sawyer County, then service by Certified Mail is allowed.

With regards to any small claims cases filed by Bernard Seidling and/or any of his Trusts, personal service upon the Respondent/Defendant shall be required. If personal service is not obtained, the process server shall be required to appear in person to testify under oath that they exercised due diligence in attempting to personally serve the Respondent/Defendant. Following said hearing, a final attempt of publication is authorized.
